

EVALUATION FORM

Candidate _____

Reviewer _____

Rate the candidate from 1-5 based on her/his qualifications, potential, and/or experience in each area.

Please add comments to support numerical score.

	Poor		Excellent
Academic preparation in basic food and nutrition science, child health, behavior modification, chronic disease prevention, and food/nutrition issues important in the general public. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
Extension programming/evaluation potential or experience (extent and applicability to food/nutrition issues of children and youth). Evidence of ability to develop/implement Cooperative Extension programming and evaluation, including innovative teaching methods for Extension clientele. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
Research and grant-writing potential and creativity as applicable to the position: Potential for developing and implementing applied research on identified problems of Extension audiences, mentoring graduate students involved in this research, and writing journal publications. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
Evidence of experience and potential in writing educational materials for use with clients (Extension publications, manuals, visuals, lesson plans, etc.) and in providing training on these materials and research-based information for field faculty and paraprofessionals. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
Interpersonal skills important for performance in this position. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
Commitment to Extension and departmental mission and goals and to collaborative initiatives in research and teaching (for example: the Food, Nutrition and Health Cross-Cutting Initiative). Comments:	1	2	3	4	5

Overall suitability for position Comments:	1	2	3	4	5
TOTALS					